If Senator Taylor is not willing to sign the petition to have Mrs. Carmack appointed postmaster at Columbia, Tenn., he ought to give his reasons.

We hope Florida's Governor will have greater success in prosecuting those lynchers than other States' Chief Executives have had, but we do not expect it.

If Taft's object was to find out whether Southern Democrats would accept office under a Republican Administration he has succeeded most admirably.

The trial of Mrs. Georgia Sampson for the murder of her husband was, we suppose, intended to be a merely formal proceeding for declaring her innocence.

Because Taft is asked to decide, What is whiskey? must not be taken to mean that he is considered to be the best judge of that article in the whole country.

Castro has not tried Haiti or San Domingo yet. Maybe one of them would give him asylum. They would be good fields for giving free rein to his desire for despotic rule.

Don's you think those Democrats who are making that petticoat appeal for aid to overthrow the Republican party ought to be ashamed to look a woman in the face?

If free oil will allow the importation of a better quality at lower price from Russia the people are not going to lament the thousands of dollars loss annually it may mean to the Standard Oil Company.

We hope that Georgia Judge will be able to make that Atlanta negro and his shyster lawyer suffer for their outrageous conduct in dismantling his residence and hauling his property away.

We hope "Old Probs." will remember that the ladies will be greatly disappointed if they cannot wear their Easter hats and dresses to church this morning, and that he will be good to them.

So, the question involving the duty on sugar—an important one to the Federal Treasury and the millions of consumers of the country—was settled last Fall betwen the then President-elect and a representative of the beet sugar manufacturers of the Northwest.

HAVE UNIFORM RANK

Military Feature of Pythianism to be Revived in Wilmington in Near Futhure.

MAJ. GEN. STOBBART HERE

Commander in United States Informally Discusseses Organization With Local Knights—Guest of Supreme Master of Exchequer.

At a small but very enthusiastic meeting of representatives of the four lodges, Knights of Pythias, of the city, in the parlor of Castle Hall, Murchison National Bank building, last night, a movement was started looking to the re-organization of the Uniform Rank, K. of P., in this city, the matter to be presented at the meetings of the lodges the coming week by the representatives present last evening.

The occasion for the meeting was the presence in the city of Major General Arthur J. Stobbart, of St. Paul, Minn., in command of all the Uniform Rank forces of the United States and who came by Wilmington on a visit to Supreme Master of Exchequer T. D. Meares, of this city, at whose home on Market street, he will be a guest until Monday evening. Gen. Stobbart discussed the matter of a Uniform Rank here rather informally with the representatives present and plans were made for properly presenting the matter to the lodges at their regular conventions this week. There is now a very general revival of interest in the military feature of Pythianism all over the country and Gen. Stobbart has just completed a most successful visitation to South Carolina lodges with Col. Henry T. Thompson, of Columbia, arriving here yesterday afternoon over the Seaboard Air Line from Spartanburg. Gen. Stobbart had no regular appointment here but took the occasion to meet a number of the Pythians and discuss with them the matter of a revival of the Uniform Rank which was so popular in Wilmington a dozen years ago. He leaves Monday evening for Greensboro to present the matter to the Gate City lodges and will go from Greensboro to Asheville.

South Carolina has recently organized 12 companies of the Uniform Rank and now has a regiment. Twenty-one men is the minimum for the company and it has been suggested that in connection with the local organization a drum corps be also formed. There are now enrolled in the Rank in the United States 30,000 members, half as many as there are men in the standing army of the United States. The Uniform Rank was organized in 1877. The officers of the company consist of a captain and two lieutenants elected by the men. In each regiment there is a battalion with a major in command, the organization being much after the fashion of National Guard troops. Swords are used instead of guns and members are not under the military direction of the State or National authorities. The parades at Supreme and Grand Lodge meetings of the order are always a striking and spectacular feature. It is hoped that there will be little difficulty in securing volunteers during the coming week for a strong local post in Wilmington.

An admission of only 15c will be charged and the proceeds will go towards paying off the debt incurred by the High School for the Goldsboro game here recently. STRAWBERRY MOVEMENT

First Solid Car From Chadbourn Yesterday in Spite of Frost and Cold weather—Damage Here—At Norfolk.

Although heavy frosts occurred throughout the trucking belt yesterday morning and the same is predicted again for this morning, following a season of unusually cold weather for April, the conditions have apparently had no disastrous effect upon strawberries and yesterday the first solid car load from this territory went forward to New York from the Chadbourn belt, while requisition is made upon the Armour Car Lines for six additional cars for loading on Monday.

When Superintendent Floyd, in charge of the local offices of the Car Lines, made the prediction ten days ago that a solid car would be forward as early as the 10th, there were many who doubted his prognostication but yesterday evening upon advices from Chadbourn, he was wearing a new $5 Knox hat as an evidence of his good judgment. It is expected that by the last of this week the daily movement will reach as high as 50 cars per day and very shortly after that the shipping season will be at its zenith.

The frost yesterday morning apparently did no damage in the immediate vicinity of Wilmington. Irish potatoes were nipped the least bit, but beans and cucumbers were not up sufficiently to be cut down. Outdoor lettuce and beets growing in the open were apparently unhurt. The frost warning sent out yesterday from the Weather Bureau says: "Fair and continued cool tonight with frost. Sunday fair and slightly warmer." It is not thought the frost this morning will be severe as there is evidence of a slowly rising temperature. In this connection the following Associated Press telegram received last night from Norfolk will be read with interest:

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—A heavy frost in the Norfolk county trucking belt last night did great damage to strawberries, cucumbers and beans. All cucumbers above ground were cut off. In some sections of the country strawberries in full bloom were killed almost completely, thus ruining the crop. This is the third time that strawberries have been injured by frosts this season.

Easter Egg Hunt Tomorrow.

An Easter egg hunt which promises to be most delightful for the children will be given in St. James' church yard under the auspices of the St. Agnes' Guild at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. It will be a happy commemoration of glad Eastertide for the children, all of whom are extended a cordial invitation to attend. Refreshments will be served and there will be other features. An admission of five cents will be charged.

New Secretary at Chamber.

Mr. J. A. McGeachy, recently appointed secretary of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, assumed the duties of his new office yesterday, and succeeds Mr. J. F. Head, who goes with the Virginia, Carolina & Southern Railway, as general freight agent. The latter leaves for Aberdeen Monday and will later locate at Lumberton. Mr. McGeachy, it will be recalled, has for several years been connected with Hugh MacRae & Co.

A NOTABLE ART EXHIBIT

Splendid Collection of Fine Etchings, Engravings, Old English Colored Prints and Water Colors at C. W. Yates & Co.

Art connoisseurs of the city will be interested and delighted to know that Mr. W. E. Jones, of Baltimore, who has visited Wilmington annually for several years on a similar mission, is again here at the store of C. W. Yates & Co., on Market street, with a notable collection of fine etchings, engravings, Old English colored prints and water colors, which he is exhibiting for a few days only, for the benefit of those who may be interested in such works

Mr. Jones has several large portfolios and the display this season is pronounced by competent critics to be possibly the best that has ever been brought to the city. In spite of the financial stringency of the past two years, now happily passing, Mr. Jones says there has been an increasing interest in the best that there is in art and there is a constant demand, especially for fine etchings and engravings; in fact, the demand is so much greater than for paintings that many of the leading artists for time have given up painting and given themselves over to etching. In his collection this year, he brings to Wilmington for exhibition purposes the original oil painting by W. Dendy Sadler, entitled "A Health Unto His Majesty" from which he is taking many orders for high class etchings. A large catalogue of artists is included in his exhibition this year, besides some of the original etchings by such famous artists as Axel Haig, Herbert Dicksee, Theo. Chauvel, Hedley Fitton and many others known to fame. Among the samples carried is a new Dicksee, a companion to one which attracted so much attention a few years ago, entitled "In the Enemy's Country." "Through the Calm and Frosty Eve" is a new Farquharsen, a companion to "The Winter Quarters;" a new Hedley Fitton, "John Knox's House at Edinburgh" and several other new ones by Sadler. A notable print and etching is of Sir Alma Tadema, R. A., which is proving quite popular this season.

For one not an art critic to attempt a description of the collection carried by Mr. Jones is futile, but suffice it to say that he will remain at the store of Messrs. Yates & Co., several days longer and the public is cordially invited to visit the exhibit and make their selection. Some of the etchings and colored prints are on display from day to day in the show window of the store and a great many others are carried by Mr. Jones, which he will be delighted to show and explain.

Preparations are being made now for work to begin on the construction of an entirely new front for The Yarborough Hotel. There is also a probability that the interior will also be thoroughly remodeled and modernized in the near future. However, there is no definite announcement in this connection as yet. The work on the hotel about to be gotten under way is to be under the direction of the Stephens Construction Co., of Wilmington, which has recently opened an office here with H. J. Gerken, a member of the firm, in charge. They have contracts for the erection of quite a number of buildings here during the Spring, including apartment houses, flats and dwellings.

There are still no arrests in connection with the robbery of the residence of William R. Collins in connection with which Mrs. Collins was shot in the back by the negro burglar as she ran from him with her babe in her arms. It is a matter of interest in connection with the affair that little more than a month ago the Collins family was an object of church charity on account of Mr. Collins' being laid up with an injured foot. The theory is that the negro had seen Mrs Collins through the window a little while before he entered the house take a coin from a purse she had and imagined that he could make a haul worth while.

Governor Kitchin is invited by the ancient city of Bath, England to appoint one or more delegates, preferably ladies, to represent the "granddaughter" town of Bath, Beaufort county, in the great celebration and jubilee to be held at Bath, England, July 19th to 24th. A special tableaux of the representatives of the American towns of Bath is to be a feature to which much interest will attach.

Hon. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of public instruction, expects to complete the work of compiling and explaining the public school laws of the State as revised and amended by the recent Legislature in time to have the printed work ready for distribution among the county and district school authorities not later than May 1st. He is also now sending out the directions to applicants for five-year teacher's certificates. These examinations will be held at the county seats on the second Thursday in July and will be based on reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, drawing, language lessons and composition, English Grammar, Geography, History of North Carolina, History of United States, Civil Government, Agriculture, Physiology, and Hygiene and the theory and practice of teaching. The applications for this examination must be on file in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction by July 1st.

The total sales of leaf tobacco on the twenty-one markets of North Carolina during March amounted to 2,897,602 first hand while the sales including those for dealers and resales for the warehouses rounded up 3,426,783. Winston-Salem leads as usual, the first hand sales in the Twin City being 886,554.

A charter is issued for the Pomona Mills (Inc.), Greensboro, authorized capital $760,000, subscribed $50,000 by J. E. Latham, E. P. Wharton, T. A. Hunter, W. C. Boren, J. VanLindley. The new corporation intends to take over the Pomona Cotton Mills which will be sold under bankruptcy proceedings April 27th.

IN RECORDER'S COURT.

Cases For Illegal Sale of Whiskey are Continued—Others Tried.

The trial of Dandy Johnson and Cornelius Moore, both colored, who were arrested on Friday on charges of retailing whiskey, were continued yesterday until tomorrow in order that other witnesses desired by the parties may testify in the cases. Moore and Johnson were both arrested by Sergeant C. S. Burnett and considerable interest is being taken in the outcome of the cases before the Recorder.

On charges of carrying a concealed weapon and shooting in the city limits, Lucile Howe, a colored woman, was tried and found guilty in the first offense and given two months at the county farm. The other case was dismissed. Mrs. M. L. Little, charged with conducting a disorderly house, which case was placed before the Recorder to be disposed of by order of the grand jury, was dismissed for lack of evidence.

Richard Aust and James S. Sellars, who were engaged in an affray with J. B. Warr, on Water street last Thursday night, the first two mentioned being injured in the fight, were given a hearing. Aust proved that he was struck by Warr without any provocation whatever and Sellars engaged in the affray to assist Aust with Warr, whom, they claim used a deadly weapon. Aust was dismissed and Sellars taxed with the costs.

A MISTRIAL ORDERED

Jury Unable to Agree in Case of Phares Against Clarendon Waterworks Co.

DIVISION OF SIX TO SIX

First Issue Answered "Yes", But Second on Company's Negligence Brought Disagreement—Deliberated for 24 Hours.

After deliberating a little more than twenty-four hours, the jury in the Superior Court which had in hearing the suit of Gaston D. Phares & Co., against the Clarendon Waterworks Company for the recovery of $2,000 alleged to have been lost through defendant's failure to provide sufficient water pressure to cope with flames which destroyed a part of his stock of furniture, reported to Judge Allen at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon that there was no possibility of an agreement and a mistrial was ordered.

It is understood from reliable sources that members of the jury stood six to six as to awarding or not awarding the plaintiff damages, the division having been on the second issue as to whether or not the plaintiff's property was destroyed by the defendant's negligence. On the first issue, "Did the defendant fail to perform the contract attached to the complaint?" it is understood that the jury was unanimous in the affirmative. Then came the second, "Was the property of the plaintiff destroyed by the negligence of the defendant company?" On this there was the division of six to six, half of the jury holding that in spite of the failure on the contract, plaintiff's property might have been saved, had not an explosion occurred, blowing out the front of the Vollers building in which the fire originated and scattered the flames in all directions as was brought out by the defendant in the testimony. There having been a division on the second issue, the third was not reached, "If so, what damage, if any, has the plaintiff sustained thereby?"

The jurors understood to have held that the plaintiff did not lose by the negligence of the company were Messrs. E. C. Holt, E. P. Bailey, C. L. Spencer, Archie McRay, W. H. Register and John E. Hewett, the latter having come over to the others after hearing the testimony reviewed by Judge Allen and received additional instructions. Other members of the jury were Messrs. Chas. H. Keen, J. Edwin Bunting, C. C. Harriss, John J. Windley, J. W. Willetts and W. D. George. The contract referred to in the first issue was that with the city for furnishing a pressure o fa given heighth out of five hose at one and the same time.

Although court had taken a recess for the day at the request of attorneys who desired to leave the city and with the consent of others interested in the docket, Judge Allen remained with the jury until 6 o'clock yesterday evening, leaving an hour later for Goldsboro to spend Sunday at home. The second week of the present term will begin Monday.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY.

All Changes and Listings in Wilmington Up to April 1st.

The new directory of the Southern Bell Telephone Company is being delivered to the subscribers in Wilmington by Manager R. L. Boyd. The new directory is attractive in appearance and contains all the changes and corrections in listings that have been made since the last directory was printed.

The number of new names appearing in the list would indicate that there are constant additions to the number of subscribers in Wilmington and vicinity and the telephone development is continuous.

The Southern Bell Company has evolved a plan whereby it furnishes telephone service to the farmers and other rural residents on an economical basis. As a result the telephone is now the rule, rather than the exception, on the farm and farmers in all sections of the State are installing telephones in their homes.

The plant of the Southern Bell Company in Wilmington is maintained at a high state of efficiency and the subscribers are well satisfied with the service they are securing.

Entertainment Postponed.

An entertainment and prize contest arranged by committees from the local court of Foresters for tomorrow night at the lodge hall on Market street has been postponed to Monday evening, April 26th. THE "DEMOCRATIC MONTHLY."

Our readers remember that just after the presidential election last fall Chairman Mack said he would soon open headquarters and carry on a four years' campaign. Few people expected to hear anything more of it, and as time went on and nothing was done, most people forgot that they had been promised the novelty of a presidential campaign being conducted by the party officials during the entire interval from one election to another, though they had become accustomed to such campaigns for the nomination.

We suppose chairman Mack's announcement that he will begin publishing the "Democratic Monthly" Magazine next month means that he will then begin the campaign for the next presidential election.

This is an attempt to conduct a long-drawnout compaign of education and it is an experiment whose success is by no means assured. If it is continued up to the time the real campaign opens there is danger that the people generally will have become so tired of it that it will be impossible to stir up any enthusiasm among them, and this three years and more of a literary campaign will be found to have done more harm than good. It is more than likely, however, that the undertaking will have proved a failure and have been abandoned long before the campaign of 1912 opens.

As the publication is to be a Democratic magazine, it will be open to members of the party for discussion of political questions and public events connected with the administration of the National Government. When it comes to this feature of the magazine the managers will find themselves walking on thin ice, which they restrict the contributions to those which in tone and character coincide with the views of the managers or whether they open the pages of the magazine to articles from men of all shades of Democracy.

TUBERCULOSIS AMONG NEGROES.

The Finance Committee of the Municipal Council of Norfolk has, at the request of the Board of Health, made an appropriation of $600 for a free clinic for negroes afflicted with tuberculosis. The Virginian-Pilot commends this action of the authorities and says it is the obviously wise and proper thing to do; that the ravages of that dread disease, which is communicable as well as preventable, among the negroes of Norfolk is appalling. The action of the board is commended, not only as a humanitarian act in behalf of the afflicted, but also as a proper one for the prevention of the spread of the disease; for to permit tuberculosis to continue unchecked among the negroes where it is so prevalent would be to pave the way for its spread among other classes of citizens. This is a matter which should be looked after in every Southern city. Tuberculosis has in the last few years become very prevalent among the negroes. This disease, which was scarcely known among negroes when they were slaves, has found in members of that race of the present day fertile soil for propagation and has taken hold of the whole race. It is the duty of city and State authorities to take the matter in hand and try to stamp it out or at least to check its spreading. Self-preservation if nothing more should induce the white people to undertake this work, which the longer it is put off the greater menace does it become to their race.

JUDGESHIP LIST NOT YET COMPLETED.

Yesterday's news from Washington as to the Judgeship was to the effect that the contest had dwindled down to two candidates, Frank L. Fuller, of Durham, and Associate Justice Brown, of the State Supreme Court, with the name of another Wilmington lawyer, George Rountree, to be put on the rolls that day, the name of Iredell Meares of this city having been one of the first mentioned in connection with the Judgeship. Mr. Rountree's name is being brought in very late in the contest, but that may not lessen his chances of success. That Mr. Rountree is a lawyer of marked ability is admitted by all who know him either personally or by reputation. He stands easily the peer of the men at the top in his profession. He has always been a student and has a practice which covers a wide range in the many branches of the law, giving him familiarity with the law as administered in both Federal and State Courts on constitutional questions and on others involved in litigation of great interest to and concerning the public as well as his clients individually.

OBEYING PARTY DEMANDS.

Congressman Clayton, of Alabama, about-faced on the lumber schedule when it came to voting in the House. In Committee of the Whole he voted with those Democrats who wanted to retain the duty on lumber; but when it came to passing in the House on the bill as reported from the Committee of the Whole he could not stand the pressure and voted for free lumber. His position was a delicate one for a Congressman whose inclinations were toward a tariff on lumber, as he was chairman of the Democratic National convention of last fall which in its platform demanded the abolition of all duties on lumber. But Mr. Clayton had he voted according to his convictions, would have found himself in mighty good Democratic company—in that of men who were members of that convention and probably voted for the free lumber plank in the platform. The fact that he was an officer of the convention, however, seems to have made him feel that he was in honor bound to vote according to the party demands.

While Roosevelt was perfecting his plans for his African hunt it was announced authoritatively that no newspaper correspondents or press representatives need apply for permission to accompany the party; for no such persons would be allowed opportunity to report on the hunter's doings. Roosevelt must have changed his mind before leaving, for now it is stated that a press reporter accompanied him to Naples, where his place was taken by another who is now aboard steamer with Roosevelt on the way to Mombassa and will remain in close touch with the party during the entire hunt. The public was surprised at learning that Roosevelt was so anxious to keep his exploits in the jungle from being published that he would allow no press reporter to go with the party; in fact it could not understand it at all.

The Charlotte Chronicle gives the desired information as to the present whereabouts of that Bryan prize mule; but it does not say whether his muleship ended his public career in being awarded to the Democracy of Esmeralda county, Nevada, last fall or is to continue his services to the party in the capacity of quadrennial prize to the county making the greatest percentage gain for Bryan in future presidential elections. The Chronicle says:

"The prize donkey offered by Colonel Bryan to the county making the greatest Democratic gain in the last presidential election, has been awarded to Esmeralda county, in Nevada, which showed a gain of 694 per cent. As the whole State of Nevada has but little greater population than Charlotte, it would be interesting to have the figures from Esmeralda count. There is evidently a great stretch between the total and the percentage."

Just suppose the Populist, the Middle-of-the-Road Populist, the Free Silver and a few other parties which were in existence a few years ago had kept up their organizations to the present, what a time President Taft would have in selecting men for some of the offices.

The Herald's prediction that there will be another municipal ticket in Durham is based on the belief that there are more than eight men in the town who want to be Aldermen—very good grounds to base such prediction upon.

The few prominent Democratic lawyers in the Eastern District whose names have not been "mentioned" for the Judgeship have cause to feel that they have been neglected by their friends.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The Federal government's action in restoring Jefferson Davis' name to the stone tablet on Cabin John bridge is as much the right sort of thing as the Mississippi public's proposed action in placing Jefferson Davis' likeness upon the battleship Mississippi's silver service is the wrong sort of thing.—Charlotte Observer.

—Representative Lever, who is especially the friend of the farmer, has succeeded in keeping the duty off potash, which would have increased the cost of fertilizer materially. Now if he will hold the duty on rice and sea island cotton he will please the farmer some more. Being a low tariff Democratic Congressman must be a nice, delicate job.—Charleston Post.

—Representative Edwards, of Georgia, says that he had rather be Balaam's ass than a Congressman. Resignations are always in order. Why did Mr. Edwards fight so hard to get and why does he so stubbornly hold on to a position so distateful to him? He makes an ass of himself in publicly voicing a declaration so obviously insincere.—Virginian-Pilot.

—It's a pretty bad thing that the moonshiners attempt to make up in prohibition States for the whiskey that is forbidden in regular trade, but the evil is nothing to that which follows the manufacture of sham whiskey in the dives where it is sold in such States. Very much of the whiskey sold in Maine and Kansas, it is said, is a stranger to corn, rye and the internal revenue official. It is of the cheapest character, as, in some spasms of virtue on the part of officials, it may be seized at any time, and the dealer naturally desires his loss to be as small as possible.—Index-Appeal.

The thing (the Judgeship candidacy) has gotten to be a farce and whoever gets the place now will come into the office with his dignity somewhat impaired, that is unless an entirely new man, one whose name has not been mentioned, is given the appointment. There are several good men in the race, but the scramble is unseemly and the Democratic scramble especially so, and the various and numberless interviews that are held would be amusing if they were not tiresome. We trust the agony will not be prolonged much longer and that the interviews to come will be short and far between.—Raleigh Times.

—"Hang reform, it hurts business," says the Richmond Times-Dispatch, "is a cry long since familiar." It would be decidedly refreshing now and then to hear some strong voice ringing out: 'Hang business, I say; it hurts reform'." It's the old, old cry. When reformers or patriots wish to get in their good work a portion of the business world rises up in protest. It was the fear of hurting business that made many of the Tories of the American Revolution; it was the fear of hurting busines that caused the New England States to protest against the war of 1812; it was the profit of the slave trade that caused New England and South Carolina to overrule the desire of Virginia and her sister States to constitutionally prohibit the infernal traffic. The patriots refused to be guided by those who preferred the tyranny of Great Britain to temporary loss, and a new nation leading the world in commercial prosperity was the result.—Lynchburg Advance.

—The Shelby Aurora, Republican, has discovered that the monazite industry in this country is threatened with destruction by the Payne tariff bill, which provides for the lowering of duty on monazite from 6 cents to 4 cents a pound. Where it will hurt, according to The Aurora, is this: "Brazilian sand is offered at present at 6.7 cents per pound in Germany. Adding freight and other expenses and a duty of 4 cents per pound, it could be delivered in New York nearly two cents per pound cheaper than it is possible to deliver the Carolina sand adding to the present price of 12 cents per pound paid to the miners here simply the cost of cleaning and freight and without any allowance for expenses of buying. If the bill passes with the 4-cent duty on monazite it is evident that the needs of this country will be supplied by Brazilian sand and that Carolina sand will no longer be salable except at much lower prices than at present." This is a discovery that should well concern the owners of monazite land in North Carolina. Cleveland county, we believe, is the centre of the monazite industry in this State and the people have been paid thousands of dollars for gathering the sand. Congressman Webb's home county, therefore, is deeply concerned in this matter and he may be depended upon to safeguard the interests of his people.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—Salisbury, April 9.—A meeting here last night in the interest of the Winston-Salem and Southbound Railroad was largely attended by citizens from Monroe, Concord, Mount Pleasant, Salisbury, Spencer, Winston and other points along the proposed route for the new road. The plan for building the road from Winston-Salem to Spencer, Salisbury, Concord and Monroe, contemplates the issuance of $15,000 of 6 per cent. bonds per mile of the road which is to be capitalized at $1,000,000. It was the concensus of opinion that each township through which the road is to pass will, when the time comes, vote to issue bonds for the construction of the line. It was agreed that books of subscription shall be opened at once and it is proposed that another meeting for all interested parties will be held at an early date at some convenient point between Winston-Salem and Monroe for the purpose of completing the plans for building the road.

EASTER
Greatest Ever

There have been thousands of ladies thronging our big Millinery Department daily. We have sold them thousands of beautiful Easter and Spring Creations and we have been compelled to double our Millinery and Trimming force in the work room; also to increase the force by half in our sales parlors. And, although it seems we have sold hats enough to furnish all the ladies in this section of land, yet the orders still pour in and new buyers continue to come. It only goes to prove this great truth: Whosoever places upon his tables and counters the best materials, together with the most up-to-date styles and shapes, and employs the most artistic designers and skilled trimmers, and then crowns it all with small cash profits, will find the "millinery trade" making a path to his door, though he build his store in the wilderness.

We thank our lady friends and patrons for their substantial recognition of our efforts to please, and we can assure them that with our increased force and the arrival by this week's steamer of delayed Hats, among which are some of the prettiest and most unique shapes of our Spring buying, there will be no delay in serving your needs, or in trimming your purchase.

Picture Puzzles at Our House.

Yes, Polly's in the living room with
Fred DeLancy Brown,
A cut-up picture puzzle he has just brought out from town;
And grandpa's sought his den, and says, Oh, please don't shake the table."—
He's sorting eyes and noses out as fast as he is able.

While sister Kate is on the stairs with blocks upon her lap,
And father's locked the bedroom door,
as if to take a nap;
Now mother's gained the dining room,
the dishes pushed aside,
She's spreading out a four-foot map of bridesmaids, groom and bride.

The children quarrel on the porch,
with pieces o'er the floor;
If anybody steps around they raise a dreadful roar.
Our Annie's to the attic climbed, and though I ring and ring,
She's putting in the final scrap, and deaf to everything.

The telephone may ring and ring, the knocker clamor loud,
I've cut a picture up myself, and joined the struggling crowd,
The work is all neglected; e'en the cat
seems in a daze,
For every one is busy—we've the picture-puzzle craze!

MR. WILLIAM R. UTLEY.

Interesting Reminiscences of an Earlier Wilmington.

The Sanford Express of last week has the following:

Mr. William R. Utley, of New York, who was noted in these columns last week as being a Lee county visitor, spent a few days in Sanford the latter part of last and the first of this week as the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Kate Scott. A reporter of this paper called on Mr. Utley Monday and learned something of his long and active life. In giving a brief story of his life, he started out by stating that he was born in Chatham county, three miles from Haywood in the year 1828, and that he was the son of Archibald Utley. Before Mr. Utley had reached his majority he decided to engage in business, and in 1847 he went to Wilmington where he organized and became a member of Hathaway and Company. This company handled sugar and molasses from Cuba and Porto Rico. Mr. Utley was a director of the Cromwell Steamship Line, the first steamship company that ever operated out of Wilmington. Messrs. Utley and Hathaway went to New York in 1865, where they opened business similar to that engaged in at Wilmington. At the end of three years the firm dissolved and Mr. Utley entered the banking business on Wall Street. After he became a prosperous and successful banker he decided to invest capital in a number of other enterprises. He became president of the Federal Valley Coal Company, of Marietta, Ohio, He was also at the head of a company that built a railroad of some length in Ohio. A town which he helped to build in Athens county, Ohio, was named Utley. Mr. Utley was also president of the New Birmingham Land & Iron Company, of Texas. He has accumulated much of his wealth from the smelting business in the iron mines of the West. Since 1901 his business has made it necessary for him to cross the continent ten times. Mr. Utley retired from active business in 1907. His office is 42 Broadway, New York.

Mr. Utley was married to Miss Mary Gary, of Garysburg, this State, in 1856. To this union was born seven children, one of whom survives, Mrs. R. M. Dix, of New York City. Mrs. Dix first met her husband in Wilmington, and after they were married they went to New York to live. Mr. Utley died Sept. 1st, 1906, and was buried in New York.

Mr. Utley has a number of relatives in this section. His father and Mrs. Scott's mother were brother and sister. Mrs. Scott's father was a McLean. She was also born and reared near Haywood. Mr. Utley is a brother of Mrs. J. M. Gunter, who lives near Jonesboro. He is also related to the families of Mr. John D. Gunter and Mr. Ed Utley, of this place.

This is Mr. Utley's second visit to North Carolina since he went to New York. He visited Wilmington in 1869. This time he found only four men in that city as old as himself, who were there in his young days. While in that city he was the guest of Mr. James Sprunt.

When the reporter called at Mrs. Scott's he found Mr. Utley in a reminiscent mood. His memory is clear and strong and without hesitating he related incidents connected with his life when a small boy. He carries in his memory the "family tree" and can give dates connected with it up to the time he left the State. In the early history of the State his grandmoher often visited her people in Wake county. She was a visitor at the Peace Farm when the engineers and surveyors went there to survey the site in which Raleigh now stands. Peace Institute got its name from this farm.

Mr. Utley sees a great future for the South, especially North Carolina, with her splendid climate and great undeveloped resources. Although he has spent the most of his life in the North he is still loyal to the South and loves to come and mingle with her people.

Mrs. Dix, who spent the season in Asheville, left for her home in New York the first of the week.

Mr. Utley left for Wilmington Monday afternoon. After spending a few days there he will sail on the 10th of April for New York.

During the spring every one would be benefitted by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. It furnishes a needed tonic to the kidneys after the extra strain of winter, and it purifies the blood by stimulating the kidneys, and causing them to eliminate the impurities from it. Foley's Kidney Remedy imparts new life and vigor. Pleasant to take. Robert R. Bellamy.

Are You Fat?

You know you can not stay fat, don't you? That is, you can not be fat and be in style. The day when a fat woman was tolerated is passed. Nowadays all women must be in proportion or be ridiculous. This does not mean you should become skinny, however. You should not get below the hard flesh line. All you ought to lose is the bulky fat. That done you will find yourself to be a well formed and therefore handsome woman.

Now, how can this be done? By exercising and dieting? Yes, and no, These two means will bring some results, but not easily nor soon. One is very hard work; the other is torture. Besides, neither can be depended on to cause a uniform reduction. They may take off a fleshy shoulder, for example, and leave the double chin untouched. What you need, you see, is something pleasant to take that without injury to your health will take the fat off uniformly and quickly, say at the rate of a pound a day or so, until it is all gone where you want it to go.

For this purpose nothing is less expensive, safer or simpler than Marmola Prescription Tablets. Inexpensive because one large case, costing 75 cents only, will produce results; safe because they cause no wrinkles or stomach trouble, but rather improve the health and complexion, if anything; and simple, because they do all the work without asking thought or effort on the part of the taker. In short, they are the ANSWER if you are fat and wish to be thinner. If your druggist is of the better kind he will have them. If not, write the licensees, The Marmola Company, Detroit, Mich.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The Original Remedy That "Kills the Dandruff Germ"

Dandruff, with is consequent hair injury and hair loss, is now known to be a highly contagious germ disease. It is caused by an invisible growth of vegetable character that finds lodgement in the sebaceous glands of the scalp. This growth disturbs the functions of the sebaceous glands, causing excessive oiliness or extreme dryness of the hair. It also sets up an inflammatory process that extends down the follicle to the papilla, where the adhesions are loosened and the hair slips out, The value of Newbro's Herpicide in such cases is quite extraordinary. Its intelligent use will correct every condition short of chronic baldness and thus permit the hair to resume its natural luster and abundance,

Charlotte Observer: "Coal trains are now being run over the Carolina Clinchfield & Ohio from Bostic on the Seaboard to Tennessee. Next month the passenger schedule between here and Rutherfordton will be arranged to connect with the schedule on the new road."

Birmingham, Ala., April 9.—There are at least 10,000 visitors in the city today to witness the dedication of the new city $2,000,000 terminal station. The station occupies two entire city blocks and has a subway permitting street cars, etc., to go through, president J. T. Harahan of the Illinois Central and President J. F. Hanson of the Central of Georgia were the principal speakers.

Charlotte Chronicle: "The Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad is now running double-header freight trains to Bostic, the Seaboard Air Line junction point. By double-header is meant freight trains pulled by two engines. Nearly all of the freight is coal and great quantities are being delivered at Bostic. About May 10, through passenger service between Charlotte and Johnston City, thence to Cincinnati, will be put on, which will mean the opening of a new trunk line for Charlotte."

Statesville Mascot: "The report has reached this city that the family of Mr. E. W. Paul, the agent of the Southern Railway at Elkin, who committed suicide at that place about two weeks ago, will institute a suit against the Southern Railway Company for damages amounting to $5,000 on account of the death of Mr. Paul. The rumor states that the complaint will allege that he committed suicide because of mental derangement brought on by overwork in the position, the company having required him to do all the work of the station, which was too much for him."

Gaffney, S. C., April 7.—It is the belief of nearly all of the people of Gaffney that the main line of the C., C. & O. Railway will come by way of Gaffney. Those who are engaged in the construction work are free to say that the line by this route would be several miles shorter than by any other to the coast, and that the cost of construction would be about one-fourth of that it would cost to build the line by any of the other routes which have been surveyed. An official of the road has recently been in this neighborhood securing rights of way.

Winston Sentinel: "The double-tracking of the main line of the Southern Railway from Washington to the South, which has been completed for a distance of 80 or 100 miles, but which was held up on account of strenuous times during the year beginning October, 1907, will in all probability be renewed with increased activity shortly. Announcement is made that a 35-mile stretch of double-track, south of Lynchburg towards Danville and Greensboro, has been opened up, and trains are now using the double tracks over the increased distance. The newly completed 35 mile stretch extends from Durmid to Sycamore, in Virginia. It is added to the above announcement that other new work will likely be started up soon. The 35-mile stretch just opened up was begun about three years ago."

Fayetteville Observer: "The citizens of Raeford were startled yesterday by seeing an engine on the Aberdeen & Rockfish railway rush through that growing town at a rate of fifty miles an hour, with a great sheet of flame issuing from its tender. It seems that the wood in the tender caught fire, and the engineer and fireman were unable to extinguish it. They cut the engine from the rest of the train and ran it some little distance up the road. Before the engine could be brought to a standstill the fire became so hot that both engineer and fireman had to jump to keep from being roasted alive. The engine, left to itself, rushed madly onward, and did not stop until it had cleared Raeford some little distance, when it came to a standstill of its own volition, while ascending a steep grade."

THE PUBLIC MARKETS.

Exhaustive Report Read by Chairman Rathjen to Board of Aldermen.

To the Hon. Mayor, W. E. Springer, and Board of Aldermen, City of Wilmington, N. C.

Gentlemen:—The Market Committee respectfully makes the following report for your and the general public's information:

The present Market Committee assumed charge of the market buildings of our city June 1st, 1907, and from this date up until now the following has been accomplished:

The new consolidated market, fire engine house has been erected at a total cost of $10,781.53. This includes the moving of the fish and huckster market, repairing and painting of the same. It is with considerable pride that I point to this building as one of our city's choicest pieces of property.

The Front Street Market has been thoroughly overhauled, the interior neatly painted, a new roof placed on shed and the main roof completely overhauled and put in perfect condition. Granolithic driveway and sidewalk on the north side of market house has been laid, making more sanitary the fish table spaces. This work was done at a cost of $2,000.24.

The Fifth Ward Market has been thoroughly overhauled and repainted, thus placing this building in a clean and sanitary condition.

The total amount expended for other minor improvements and the above mentioned work during the last two years is $16,975.70, deducting cost of new Consolidated Market and Fire Engine House leaves a balance expended on improvements and repairs of all market property for the past two years $6,194.17.

Receipts from Market Rents—October 1st, 1907, (which is the beginning of the renting period) to October, 1908, the receipts were $2,600.77 and from October 1908, to April 1st, 1909, is $2,998.77, the estimated receipts from April 1st, to October 1st, 1909, are $1,800, or a total amount received and estimated to be received up to October 1st, 1909, is and will be $7,399.54. The above receipts would have been considerable more but for the fact that during the construction of the Consolidated Market and Fire Engine House for more than six months, no rents were received from the First Ward Market.

Total receipts from private market from Oct. 1st, 1907, to Oct. 1st, 1908, is $1,100/00 and from Oct. 1st, 1908, to Oct. 1st, 1909, is and will be $1,600.00 making a total receipts from private market for two years $2,700.00.

We take this opportunity to thank the Hon. Mayor and Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance for the kind and courteous treatment that has been accorded us.

Yours most respectfully,
MARTIN RATHJEN,
Chairman.

LUMBERMEN AT WHITE HOUSE.

Senator Daniel Presents Delegation From Virginia and Carolina.

(Washington Herald.)

A large delegation of lumber manufacturers from Virginia and North Carolina called on President Taft at the White House yesterday and were presented by Senator Daniel, of Virginia. Z. W. Whitehead, of the Southern Lumber Journal, acted as spokesman, and presented the different lumbermen by name. After the President had shaken hands with the delegation, he turned to Mr. Whitehead, and said:

"I suppose your people in the South are at last interested in the tariff on lumber?" with a very significant smile. "Yes, indeed, Mr. President," responded Mr. Whitehead, "and while we are delighted to shake hans for the first time with the new President of the United States, we are here to record our protest against any repeal or modifications of the present tariff on lumber."

"Well, now that sounds good," said Mr. Taft, in the very best of humor, and turning to Senator Daniel remarked, "I hope you have gotten such war horses as Senator Daniel around to you way of thinking."

"Yes, sir; I am glad to say that Senator Daniel and about nine-tenths of the other Southern Senators are of the same way of thinking, and will strenuously oppose any and all discrimination against this great Southern product."

The lumbermen went away feeling that they had a "friend at court" in the White House.

The extent and importance of the lumber interests of Virginia and North Carolina are great and far reaching. Under normal conditions there are 1,388 lumber mills in the two States, employing approximately 55,526 operators.

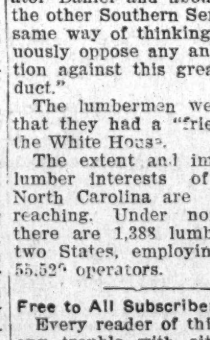
WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay



Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

IN SOCIETY

evening of Good Friday was one of the most beautiful services of this character ever attempted in Wilmington. The splendid training of the choir was evidenced throughout the entire piece, and the rendition of the various scenes was most impressive. A large congregation gathered to attend the service and the solemnity of the occasion, primarily, together with the music perfection of the many voices, served to emphasize the sacredness of the passion and death of Christ.

Miss Mildred Smith, who is attending school in Washington, is in Wilmington for the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Alec London, and daughter, of Birmingham, Ala., arrived in the city during the past week, where they are the guests of Mrs. Eliza Cronly, on North Third street.

Among the students of the University who have returned to their homes to spend the Easter holidays are Messrs. David Murchison, George F. Meares, and Robert Bridgers. Their large circle of friends are extending to them a most cordial welcome.

Friends of Mrs. J. McRee Hatch will regret to learn that she left for Sumter, S. C., during the past week, where Mr. Hatch has an important position with the Northwestern of South Carolina Railway. They will be greatly missed by their large circle of friends in this city.

There will be special music by the choir of St. John's Church at the Easter services today. The choir has been especially prepared for this service, and the choir room, which has just been completed, will be used for the first time. The soloists will be Mrs. J. S. Longfellow, Miss Emerson and Mr. O'Keefe.

There will be an Easter egg hunt at St. James' Parish House on Monday afternoon, and preparations are doubtless being made for the hunt by numbers of enthusiastic little egg-hunters throughout the season. The usual tempting refreshments will also be served on the grounds, and it is expected quite a large attendance will be had.

Invitations have been issued to friends in the city by Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Green for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jane Iredell Green, to Mr. Herbert Adolphus Lynch, at St. James' Episcopal Church at 6 o'clock on the afternoon of Wednesday, April 23rd. The marriage is a matter of much interest to their many friends here.

Mrs. Eugene Newbold, of Baltimore, who is pleasantly remembered here, having visited here several years ago, arrived during the past week to visit her sister, Mrs. John P. Moore, Jr., at their home on Topsail Sound. Mr. and Mrs. Moore also have as their guests, Mr. Moore's parents, Senator and Mrs. John P. Moore, Sr., of Snow Hill, Maryland.

The Music Department of the Wilmington Chapter of the Sorosis has made arrangements for a concert to be given on the 19th of April, by some of the best known musical talent of the State. The artists who have been engaged to take part, are Mrs. Wade R. Brown, contralto, and Mr. Gustav Hagedorn, violinist, assisted by Miss Elizabeth D. Burtt, pianist. Mrs. Brown has a beautiful contralto voice of wide range and great flexibility, which, combined with her thorough musicianship makes her one of the best singers in the South. Her appearance at a former recital will be favorably remembered by the music lovers of Wilmington. The violinist Mr. Hagedorn, who is now at the head of the violin department of the Baptist University in Raleigh, was formerly a member of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. He has had exceptional advantages, having studied with Adolf Hahn, and recently with Leopold Lichtenberg of New York. His services as a concert violinist are very much in demand, having filled such important positions as concert-meister for the great Atlanta May Festival, the Greenville Festival, and the Charlotte Fall Music Festival upon which occasion the Charlotte News speaks in the highest terms of his work. The soloists have been very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Elizabeth Burtt as accompanist. Her work is too well known to need especial mention, suffice is to say, that she combines the technique and the sympathetic musicianship, so necessary for a good accompanist.

WEEK AT LUMBERTON

Robeson Court Adjourns Two Weeks' Term—V. & C. S. New Depot. Heavy Frosts Yesterday Morning—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., April 10.—Robeson Superior Court adjourned late yesterday evening after having been in session for eleven days, most of which time was taken up in trying two cases. The Edmunds case against the town took up five days and the case of Oliver against Raleigh and Charleston railroad for damages by woods being burned, took 4 1-2 days. The town being the winner in the first case we are told the plaintiff will appeal. The railroad lost its suit, but it is not known if an appeal will be taken. Another term of court convenes May 17th.

Workmen are busily engaged erecting a large freight and passenger depot for the Virginia and Carolina Southern. The building, near the Seaboard freight station, will be a wooden structure, 40x120 feet, covered with metal shingles. The part of the building for waiting room and offices will be two stories high. Mr. W. M. Dew is the contractor and he expects to have the building complete by May 1st.

Tuesday evening Colonel and Mrs. N. A. McLean entertained a number of friends at dinner in honor of Judge Adams, who has been holding court here the past two weeks.

Many friends of Mr. James Lamano will regret to know that he is confined in a hospital in Charlotte on account of sickness.——Mr. E. G. Sipher, Lumberton's popular electrician, tells us that during the first three months of this year, he has had more work than for the first year and a half he was engaged in business here, though he did most of the work that was done here during that time.——The boys are practicing for a game of ball which is to be played here Monday afternoon between Lumberton and Maxton.——The first shipment of ice for the season was received here yesterday.

Since our item was published last Sunday in regard to a Lumberton citizen who troubled his friends so much about their newspapers, we have learned that a newspaper man recently secured the gentleman's name as a subscriber for his publication but after two copies had been sent him he notified the publisher to discontinue, giving as his reason the information that his next door neighbor took the paper and he could read that. We are not surprised at his borrowing a newspaper when we are told that rather than pay for washing a handkerchief, he will do it himself Sunday morning before church time and hold it out in the wind until it drys.

Mr. R. E. Lee, his attorney, is making a strong effort to have the sentence of Junius McKay, sentenced to be hanged here May 21st, commuted to life imprisonment.——A gentleman who spent a part of last week at Fair Bluff states that Lumber River fish are being caught there with hook and line in goodly numbers. Fish evidently bite earlier at Fair Bluff than at Lumberton——As a result of forest fires a few miles south of here this week much timber has been ruined. The origin of the fire is unknown.——Charles H. Mosley, the colored barber who has for several years conducted a shop upstairs in the Shaw building, has moved into one of the rooms in the building on Fourth street, recently occupied by George Norment as a restaurant——Master Eli Wishart, formerly of Wilmington, is now engaged as messenger boy with the law firm of McLean, McLean & Snow.

Pythians and their friends and families in this section will have the opportunity next Thursday and Friday nights of seeing the beautiful story of Damon and Pythias in moving pictures. Every Pythian should see the play and take his family and friends.

Mr. J. B. Farrar, of the firm of Farrar & Moore, Wilmington, was in town yesterday making arrangements to give a demonstration of their newly invented cotton chopper. As soon as cotton gets up large enough to be chopped, Mr. Farrar will give a demonstration on Mayor Rowland's farm. Notice will be given so that farmers may attend.

Many friends are rejoicing at the nouncement that Dr. H. T. Pope, who was so badly injured in a runaway last October, has entirely recovered and has again resumed his practice.——Mr. Ed B. Freeman, of the Freeman Printing Co., has been confined at home for several days on account of sickness——For the first time probably, Lumberton had three different shows to spend last Sunday in town. Sparks' circus drew the largest crowd, however, as the other shows and everybody else had to see the elephants.

Two animals—in manner—five or six feet tall, dressed as men and eating peanuts as monkeys, found their way to the opera house last night and called for two five cent tickets to the picture show. They were told that it would cost them ten cents each, the price for grown people, but they said they wanted the tickets for two children. Upon reaching the door the lady informed them that they had the wrong kind of tickets, but they said it was on ticket seller and they were going in, at the same time pushing by her. An animal trainer happened to be near at hand and gave them a lesson in decorum, and they seemed delighted to pay the nickle which they were trying so hard to avoid. We are proud to say they do not belong in this community and have evidently escaped from some traveling aggregation.

Heavy frosts occurred in this section this morning and ice is said to have formed in some places——A party of Lumberton gentlemen went to Cape Fear river yesterday on a fishing trip, returning this morning, about 1 A. M., with just one fish for each man.——The Easter decorations at the drug store of Messrs. J. D. MacMillan & Son are being greatly admired by a large number of visitors who declare the decorations the most beautiful ever seen here.——Mr. C. B. Skipper went to Wilmington last night to be with Mrs. Skipper who is there for treatment.——Mrs Alva H. Ward, who has been visiting relatives in Lumberton for several days, went to Wilmington yesterday where she will spend a few days before returning to her home in Norfolk.——Prof. and Mrs. T. P. DeGafferelly spent Thursday in Wilmington.

Mrs. M. Beverly and children left this evening for Latta, S. C., where they will visit relatives.——Mr. John Morris leaves tonight for Wilmington to spend Sunday with relatives.——Miss Lizzie Caldwell, who has been spending some time in Wilmington, for treatment, returned home this week.

One of the most pleasing events of the Easter time was the entertainment given this afternoon by Mrs. R. D. Caldwell to the infant class of the First Baptist Sunday School of which she is the teacher. After an egg hunt on the grounds adjoining Mrs. Caldwell's residence, the children were taken to the picture show and it was an occasion of much merriment for the little ones. There are enrolled in this class 85 children.

CURIOUS MARRIAGE LAW.

May Marry Wife's Sister, But Not the Sister's Daughter.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Sydney, N. Z., April 9.—A curious anomaly has recently been brought to light in connection with the legislation permitting marriage with a deceased wife's sister. A Sydney clergyman was asked to marry a man to his deceased wife's sister's daughter. Under the ecclesiastical law the marriage could not take place, but since marriage with the intended bride's mother would have been allowable under the civil law, surely there could be no objection to the marriage of the daughter? The point has not been raised before in New South Wales, and the clergyman was in a quandary. He sought the advice of the Vicar General who was of the opinion that the marriage would be illegal. The registrar gave a similar judgement. Had the parties gone to South Australia, however, they could have been legally married, and what is equally remarkable, the ceremony would have been recognized as binding in New South Wales. South Australia was apparently the only portion of the Empire which when it made marriage with a decreased wife's sister legal, also extended the right to the sister's daughter.

She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS

TWO YEARS AGO we opened our doors for business, setting our ideal of perfection at the highest commercial notch. With a bound it seemed to leap into popular favor, and the consequences have been wonderful upward strides, a constant bettering of our merchandise, a constant increase in varieties, daily improvements in our store service, and a tremendous increase in our great and growing business.

This record of successful effort was not made possible by our work alone, and never have we appreciated more than now our obligation to our good friends and patrons who have made this condition possible. We have never allowed ourselves to feel that in simply giving a customer his or her money's worth we had fulfilled our whole duty, but tried to perform that duty in such a way as to assure them that we appreciate their patronage.

In an age where The Best is the recognized standard of achievement in every field of endeavor, our store becomes a synonym for supremacy in clothes. A store where exclusiveness in style is more than a mere phrase—where merit of a high order is the unfailing stamp of distinction—where men are accustomed to come and choose with pleasure their apparel from season to season, knowing that the finest clothes the world produces are the clothes we sell every day.

WE ARE SOLE AGENTS FOR

"Stein-Bloch Co.'s Smart Clothes" and Michaels-Stern's

"THE BEST WORN, WORN BY THE BEST."

These are our leading lines and they represent all that is desirable in high grade ready-to-wear garments. For Boys and Children we are agents for N. Snellenberg & Co. The clothing of Boys of all ages is our specialty, and we can demonstrate this assertion to your satisfaction.

The old saying, "every man to his trade" is no longer applicable to the trade of clothes making. Nowadays it should read "every man to his SPECIAL part of his trade," for that is the way it is done by the wholesale tailors who build our garments. For example: our clothes for young men are planned out independently of the older men's—they are designed, planned and executed independently in the creation of individual styles for the younger generation.

FROST AT ROCKY POINT.

Beans and Cucumbers Injured—The Outlook For Truckers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., April 10.—Last night's frost did great damage to unprotected beans and cucumbers, quite a lot of which were up and a good stand. Strawberries that were covered came out all right but the unprotected ones have received a "black-eye", particularly those in bloom and recently fruited. The half-grown and turning red berries were firm enough not to be softened by the frost that tonight will add the finishing blow. The radish market is over with. Lettuce is doing only tolerably well. Sales from 50c to $1.35 per basket does not allow much margin. If berry prices are not good and there is a possibility that the reported "record-breaking" crop will have a tendency to lower prices, the truckers will not come out on "easy street" as some would have us believe they will. It's all gambling; sometimes the "early bird" gets the worm and then again he don't, while the man who makes plenty of corn, fodder, pork and potatoes is always "Johnny on the spot."

It was stated yesterday at Gloucester, Mass., that President Taft and his family had definitely decided to occupy the Robinson house on School street, in that city, part of the coming Summer, their arrival depending upon the length of the present session of Congress.

The Theatre

As a holiday or Easter week attraction the Crystal Palace management boasts that it has a big and delightful offering. It is labeled a "roar," as the acts were selected with eye-single for comedy for the holiday time. Two of the best known comedy sketch teams on the vaudeville stage have been engaged, while the popular, Dutch comedian, Billie Thompson, has also been booked. The teams are Howard and Vallarreal and Milan and Duboise. Each will present a merry act and one that will dish-out fun of the fast and furious brand. Their acts will also be interespersed with good singing and some clever dancing. So it can be seen that this week's bill, commanding, "rain or shine," in circus parlance, tomorrow afternoon, should be a hummer.

A Big Ibsen Event.

"A Doll's House," Herik Ibsen's magnificent poetic drama in which Miss Florence Davis will be seen next Saturday night at the Academy will no doubt prove to be that splendid actress's greatest work if one may judge from the many meritorious advance notices. In the character of "Nora," Miss Davis gives a portrayal that will rank with the best achievements of her already notable career.

Monday at the Bijou.

"The Star of Bethlehem" will be the feature film at the Bijou Easter Monday afternoon and evening. This is a beautiful reverential picture, having especial significance in connection with the close of Lent and the dawn of the beautiful Easter. Another film will be one of Selig's great wild west dramas, "On the War Path." Both will be found of the usual high-class and absorbingly interesting. Prices never more than five cents, however big the bill.

EAGLES' MEMORIAL.

Congressman Godwin Will Deliver Address—Interesting Programme.

Memorial exercises by the local lodge, Carolina Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, on the first Sunday in May, will be marked by a most interesting and well arranged programme for this solemn occasion. Congressman H. L. Godwin has consented to deliver the annual oration.

It will be memorial Sunday for the lodges of Eagles throughout the United States and the exercises will be held in the Academy of Music. A committee recently appointed is perfecting all necessary details to carry the programme out most elaborately.

The memorial address will be delivered by Mr. Geo. L. Morton and there will probably be other speakers for the occasion. The musical renditions will be by some of Wilmington's most talented musicians and the decorations will be arranged by Mr. J. Carewe. The programme will be published in detail as soon as the committee completes its arrangements.

Memorial day last year in this city was characterized by an excellent programme, it will be recalled, at which time the first oration was delivered by Mr. William J. Bellamy.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Robert R. Bellamy.

ONE CAR LOAD OF
BUICK RUNABOUTS
Arrived---Another Coming,
AND ALL SOLD!

Four of these little runabouts are owned by physicians, men who demand a car that is reliable day and night—a car that is tried and proven, and at a nominal cost and small upkeep.

Here Are a Few Buick Records:

Won Atlanta hill climb March 27th against cars costing $3,000; on Daytona Beach, March 24th, Lewis Strang drove a model 17 BUICK (stock car) 100 miles in 90 minutes, breaking the world's record by 12 minutes. On the same day an amateur drove a model 10 Buick 100 miles in 99 minutes, breaking world's record by 20 minutes.

Of course you are not going in the racing game, but a car that can hold together on a race track must be made right, and can be depended upon for service.

You can purchase for $1,000 a 22 h. p. BUICK RUNABOUT, with magneto, all lamps and horn.

Consider this proposition and let us demonstrate to you the nattiest, speediest, most serviceable little car that has ever been placed on the market. And don't forget the model 17 Buick Touring Car at $1,750. It is complete and has thirty horse power.

FRANCE FORCED CASTRO TO LEAVE

Former Dictator Bitterly Protested and Was Bodily Carried Aboard Steamer.

HAS SYMPATHY OF PEOPLE

Created a Sensation at Martinique. Crowds Saw Him Placed on the Varsailles—Termed as "Common Enemy of Peace."

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Fort de France, April 10.—Cipriano Castro, ex-President of Venezuela, was ignominously expelled tonight from the Island of Martinique by the French government. He protested to the last against his expulsion but his protests were in vain. He is now on board the French line steamship Versailles bound for St. Naziere.

Official notice was served on Castro this morning of the decision of the French Government that he must leave the Island of Martinique within nine hours from the receipt of such notice and that the commissionary of police at Fort de France had been charged with the execution of the order. The ex-President was furious with indignation and strove throughout the day for some excuse that would be satisfactory whereby he would not be compelled to obey the order. About five o'clock the commissary of police, accompanied by a large force of gendarmes, proceeded to the hotel where Castro was stopping to remove him, forcibly if necessary to the steamer.

It became necessary for the police and gendarmes to take rigid measures to hold in check the crowds that had by this time become riotous outside the hotel.

At 8:30 o'clock gendarmes went to Castro's room and he was placed on a mattress as he refused to put on his clothes and carried on a stretcher to the steamer, a d stance of more than a mile. A thousand or more of the population had assembled by this time and a great deal of sympathy was expressed for the former President. The latter complained of great suffering and every movement of the stretcher seemed to give him further pain. He has presented a protest which will be sent to the French Government tomorrow. The Versailles left here at 9 o'clock and measures have been taken to keep a careful watch on Castro during the voyage.

WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE

Joint Meeting of Commissioners and Board of Audit and Finance.

A joint meeting of members of the Board of Audit and Finance and the Water and Sewerage Commission was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the office of the former at the City Hall, all members of the two boards being present except Mr. H. C. McQueen.

Chairman Heyer stated that the meeting had been called at the request of the Water and Sewerage Commission and asked Chairman C. W. Worth, of that body, to state the object. Mr. Worth stated that under the law providing for the municipal waterworks, the Commission had the fixing of the rates to be approved by the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance and stated that for the present the Commission had fixed the rates already established, a copy of which were submitted and approved upon motion of Mr. W. B. Cooper. It was explained that these rates were lower than Asheville and Charlotte and only a trifle more than in Raleigh. Chairman Heyer said he believed it was generally understood that water would be furnished to consumers when the plant was in operation fully at cost to the city after taking care of interest charges and depreciation.

Mr. Worth said that the Commission desired the Board to approve the salaries of employes of the Commission and recommended that the salaries be the same as are now paid superintendent and consuling engineer, $2,400; pumping engineer, $1,[illegible] man, $720 and office man and clerk, $800. Mr. Worth said that it was generally understood that the private owners of the property ran the plant as economically as possible and there was much advantage in having employes acquainted with local conditions. In response to inquiry, it was stated that the salary of the superintendent had been raised October 1st last. Mr. Wilder stated that he thought the people had perfect confidence in the Commission and he was willing to abide by their recommendations, though several other of the members, were inclined to advocate a policy of retrenchment. Finally upon motion of Mr. Cooper it was agreed that the salaries would remain as at present until the beginning of the fiscal year on June 1st.

Members of both organizations present expressed the opinion that the matter of a sewerage system should be taken up at once and plans for the extensions made together. There being no further business before the meeting, a recess was taken subject to call.

Carrier Boys Play Ball.

NEGRO BARBER ARRESTED.

Charged With Relieving Traveling Man of Valuable Diamond Pin.

A colored barber, called Joe Pee and employed at Pittman's barber shop on Second street, was arrested last night about 10 o'clock by Officer I. F. Huggins on a charge of having relieved Mr. T. A. Lyon, of Greensboro, a well known traveling man, of a handsome diamond scarf pin, valued at several hundred dollars and especially prized by the owner as a keepsake. Mr. Lyon stated to the police that he went in the barber shop for a shave last night and after removing his collar and tie and removing the pin placing the latter in his inside coat pocket as a precaution, he got in the chair and after being shaved, again placed his collar and tie on and reaching in the pocket of his coat, which he had not taken off while being shaved, found to his astonishment that the pin was missing. He immediately complained of his loss and noticed that the barber had left the shop for a few minutes. He accused the negro of removing the pin from his pocket while he was being shaved, but the latter was indignant at the charge. A warrant was secured for his arrest and he was locked up for trial before the Recorder Monday in default of $200 bond.

REVIVAL TO CONTINUE.

Series of Services at Grace Church Throughout the Week.

The Grace church revival which began last Sunday morning will be in progress this week and services will be conducted nightly by the pastor, Rev. T. A. Smoot. There have been a number of accessions to the church during the revival.

A special meeting of the Baraca Class will be hed this morning at 10 o'clock. Easter services will be observed at this church today. Mr. William Ramsey, who has directed the singing so splendidly during the past week, will continue as choir leader throughout this week.

RAIDS WERE UNLAWFUL.

Mobile Hotel and Cafe Men Will Sue Prohibition Detectives.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Mobile, Ala., April 10.—One of the strongest sections of the State prohibitory law was declared unconstitutional today by Justice Mayfield at Montgomery. The secretary prohibited the storing or possession of liquor in any building or apartment which was inhabited.

Judge Mayfield held that the statute was in conflict with the Federal bill of rights which held that every man's home is his castle. He further ruled that search warrants to seize liquor could be legally issued only after evidence had been discovered. Under this ruling the hotel and cafe men whose places were raided a few days ago by prohibition detectives will sue the men who instigated the raids.

Whiskey, wines and other liquors to the value of about $10,000 seized here on Thursday by the sheriff on warrants sworn out by members of the "Law and Order League" were released today, the owners giving the necessary bond.

A survey of the Italian steamship Moncensisce at Norfolk from New Orleans to Genoa, cotton laden, shows her cargo fire damage was small. The vessel will sail for Genoa Sunday.

SEABOARD TRAIN DITCHED.

Number Injured in Wreck Near Denmark, S. C.—Work of Wreckers.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., April 10.—That Southbound passenger train No. 43 was sent whirling from the tracks of the Seaboard Air Line Railway at Hicks station, three miles north of Denmark, S. C., early this morning as the result of efforts of train wreckers, causing the probable fatal injury of one person and the injury of ten others, is believed by many who saw the wreck. As a result of the investigations of Special Agent Gaujot, blood hounds were used in an effort to trace the supposed wreckers.

The injured are Engineer John Asheley, Walter Wiggins, the negro fireman, of Savannah; Mrs. A. W. Miller, Columbia, S. C.; L. W. Copeland, express messenger; Mail Clerks L. M. Smith, A. C. Stanley, and J. M. Daniel and L. B. Gordon, all of Jacksonville; Mrs. Charles McCullough, of Savannah; Isaac Coleman, a negro tramp, and Ellis Culbreth, a negro. Of these Coleman is the worse injured and will probably die. The injured of the others were confined to bruises and cuts. The Pullman car on the train was alone left on the track. The engine was smashed to wreckage, plowing into some gondola cars after leaving the track and the mail car was overturned. No arrests have been made because of the wreck.

POPE S. HILL A SUICIDE?

Mayor at McRae, Ga., Issues Statement to That Effect—Theory.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

McRae, Ga., April 10.—In a statement nearly a thousand words long the mayor of this town declared tonight that Pope S. Hill, the Macon attorney, found dead in an office here last Monday was not murdered but committed suicide. He reviewed the case in detail and pointed out the alleged weaknesses of the murder theory.

The Governor withdrew the reward that he had offered for the murderers, after a conference with Hill's law partners.

At the request of Colonel N. E. Harris, associate in law with Pope S. Hill, whose death at McRae, Ga., Sunday night is clother in mystery, Governor Smith has not offered a reward for the capture of the slayer of Hill, fearing that the word of detetives might be interfered with by over-zealous officers. An arrest in the case is expected momentarily and it is stated a prominent man is under surveillance of the officers, a man whose arrest will create a sensation.

Friends of the late attorney condemn the statement published by the Mayor of McRae today in which he scouts the finding of murder by a coroner's jury.

LAWYERS TAKE ACTION

People's Attorney Will Represent Poor People Who are Victims of Injustice

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., April 10.—The dismantling of the home of United States Circuit Judge W. B. Sheppard, under a justice court writ has led to a movement to create an office denoted as that of people's attorney. The duties of this office, according to the plan will be to represent the poor people, who may be wronged, but have not means to employ counsel to protect their rights. It is pointed out that if a Federal Judge can readily be made the victim of injustice, hundreds of poor persons must suffer similarity. The plan is to have each member of the local bar contribute a small sum annually to be paid to a people's lawyer, volunteer membars of the association also to appear for poor litigants if necessary.

The Bar Association will meet next week to take action on the matter. Already enough people have agreed to contribute to ensure the amount for the attorney.

THE DUTY ON LUMBER

The changes on This Article Made by the Payne Bill.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 10.—While the principal fight on the final passage of the Payne bill in the House was on the lumber schedule, the only change made in the schedule was the elimination of the proviso for a countervailing duty. As it stands the schedule now provides for a duty of $1 per 1,000 feet on ordinary sawed lumber as against $2 under the Dingley law. In cases in which the lumber is planed or finished an additional duty of 50 cents per 1,000 is provided on each side treated. Hewn timber or round timber such as is used in making spars or in building wharves is made dutiable at the rate of one half a cent per cubic foot.

TRAGEDY AT ALBANY, GA.

Well Known Citizen Thrashed and Shot to Death.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Albany, Ga., April 10.—Following a street fight in which his father had severely punished Nevill L. Ragan, one of the best known citizens of Albany, Howard Clark, a young man, shot Ragan to death on Washington street after vainly seeking a private interview with him. Clark's father, John S. Clark and Ragan had fought as the result of a discussion which grew out of Clark's services on the Dougherty county grand jury. The son, it is stated, called Ragan a thief and it is said shot him as Ragan advanced after receiving the epithet. Clark surrendered.

Home Without a Piano

Not many years ago the Stieff was looked on by great majority of people as a luxury. Today it is regarded as nothing short of a necessity in every American home. The refining influence of music is so potent a factor in the character develoopment of a child, that no conscientious parent can save for the greatest reasons, neglect making the addition of a Stieff to the furniture of the household. While we do a very large business in the very highest priced instruments, annually, it is our constant aim to furnish thoroughly honest and reliable pianos on very easy terms to persons in moderate circumstances. Remember we have an exceeding strong lead over our local competitors in this field. We have at our command the immense annual output of two factories. We are an established business factor in your city. We are among you to stay; your interests are ours. Why not patronize your home piano house? Stieff plan of selling, saves money and makes buying easy for anybody.

SEVEN MINERS KILLED.

Resulted From Premature Explosion, Bodies Recovered.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winber, Pa., April 10.—Seven miners were killed, several slightly injured and many narrowly escaped as a result of a premature explosion of dynamite in mine No. 37 of the Berwind-White Coal Company, one-half hile from here last evening.

Early today all the dead have been recovered and according to Mine Inspector Blower of the sixth district, there are no more victims in the workings.

A small number of miners were slightly injured by the explosion, among them being two sons of Michael Gibson, who with his son William, met death.

Resenting a demand for hack fare from Zeke Roberts, 25 years old, John Burchfield, 32 years old, fired two shots at the former at Asheville last night, both taking effect in Roberts' right temple. The wounded man was taken to his home where he died two hours later. The deceased was unmarried. Burchfield was lodged in the county jail and charged with wilful murder.

Former Cashier of Greensboro Bank. Hearing Next October.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., April 10.—The trial in the Federal Court of Lee H. Battle, former cashier of the City National Bank of Greensboro, charged with making false entries in the books and overdrawing his personal account and that of the Pomona Cotton Mills, of which he was president, was today continued until October at the request of counsel for the defense.

Judge Boyd refused a motion to quash the indictment upon the plea that foreman of the grand jury which returned the bill was a stockholder in the bank.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Wilson Times: The State Sunday school convention that has been holding for the past few days in Concord, N. C., adjourned yesterday afternoon and one of its closing acts was to select Wilson as its next place of meeting.

—Carolina Watchman: The city authorities at the present time have all reason to know and to believe that there are at least a dozen saloons in Salisbury today and not the least effort, regardless of their oath to enforce the law, is being made to apprehend or bring to justice any of them.

—Maxton Scottish Chief: We learn that Mr. Blue is getting the right of way for a railroad running in this direction from Raeford. If he has the business acumen in this instance which he has heretofore exhibited he will build to Maxton the future city of all this section.

—Stanly Enterprise: The organization of the farmers in this county under an authorized capital of $10,000 would seem to token well for the members of the Union. The plan of paying interest on borrowed money will mean the saving of many dollars over the time system. Even better than this is the plan of education looking to the adoption of advanced farm methods. Working upon a broad plane, this movement will be of great benefit to our farmers.

—Rockingham Anglo-Saxon: Hotel Rockingham is completed. The furniture has been placed in all the rooms, or will be by today and the doors will be thrown open to the public either today or Monday. Mr. Corpening, the manager, has been here all the week with a large force of helpers getting things straight and he has about succeeded. The hotel is a beautiful building and is a modern one in every respect.

—Maxton Scottish Chief: The alleged restaurants on Hell's Half Acre were closed last Sunday by the town authorities. On Tuesday a letter threatening the lives of the Mayor and Marshal and to burn and kill generally, was received through the mail. It was of the same tenor of the one received last year, declaring the negroes would take the town. It is plain that there is some good chain-gang material around here.

—The Robesonian: At the meeting of the county commissioners the first of the week, Robeson county bonds in the sum of $25,000, 5 per cent. 30-year bonds, the sale of which was authorized by the last Legislature, to fund the floating debt of the county, were sold to E. H. Rollins & Sons, bankers, of Boston, Mass., whose offer was par with accrued interest and a premium of $2,682.75, which is equivalent to $1,105.31 and accrued interest for each $1,000 of bonds.

—Sanford Express: The dewberry industry in Moore and Lee counties is assuming proportions and promises to become one of the leading and most profitable industries of the two counties. A stock company of High Point is preparing the land and will plant 30 acres in berries at Aberdeen. Since dewberries have been introduced on the Northern markets, the demand for this palatable fruit has become great and all that can be raised are sold at good prices.

—Rocky Mount Record: Mr. J. A. Floyd, general agent for the Armour Icing Co., of Chicago arrived in the city last night for a several days stay here and is getting things in readiness at their station here for the handling of truck on their lines during the coming season. Mr. Floyd is getting the station here in the best of trim for the handling of strawberries, and other truck, shipments of which will begin to go north sometime within the next several weeks.

—Pender Chronicle: At the regular meeting of the Board of Education last Monday, Mr. Lee Bowen resigned and the Board elected Mr. Gibson James to succeed him. As Mr. James was one of the appointees of the recent Legislature, whose regular term begins in July, the Board acted very wisely in electing him to fill the vacancy. No action was taken in regard to electing a successor to Rev. Mr. Utley as County Superintendent of Public Instruction, and it is likely that he will continue to act as such until July.

—Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer: The latest fake we have heard of being worked on Anson suckers was an unusually slick one. Several weeks ago a couple of men went through the county selling cloth for clothing. They expatiated at great length upon the quality of the cloth and as a clincher informed the victims that the firm for which they traveled would send a first class tailor after them in a week. The tailor, they said, would make the cloth into a fashionable suit of clothes and only charge them $2 and board for the work. Several persons, we learn, bought cloth for one or two suits but so far the tailor has not shown up.

—The Robesonian: Alfred Allen, who has a home on the Elizabeth road about 8 miles from town, disappeared some six weeks ago and his people have heard nothing of or from him since. He came to Lumberton on a Saturday and sent a negro back home with his mule and buggy and told the negro to tell his wife that he was going to Evergreen to work with one Joe Harrell at a steam mill. He had some $300 on him the day he disappeared and his people fear that somebody made away with him for his money. He is a son of Simon Allen, who lives 9 miles from town on the Big swamp. He has a good farm of about 280 acres. He had had no difficulties and his disappearance is a mystery to his people.

Waterways Idea Taking Strong Hold Upon Powers at Washington—Proposition For Bond Issue For Improvement.

Washington, April 6.—If what is at present a very large faction in Congress can be increased to a majority, two billion dollars of national indebtedness will be rolled up in the next twenty years. This faction proposes to issue bonds to an amount of fifty million dollars each year and to expend the proceeds in improving inland waterways.

The idea is not a new one. It has been advocated, in some degree or other, for more than a generation, but it was given standing by the waterways congress called by President Roosevelt. What was originally set down as the dream of visionaries now has standing and the endorsement of practical men of affairs.

When the waterways congress first proposed this fifty millions a year expenditure the idea was roundly denounced by most of the influential men in Congress. But they have been thinking since then. The condition of the national revenues has furnished a lot of food for thought. It is becoming plainer every day that, so far as concerns current revenues, instead of its being possible to enter upon an enlarged programme of waterways improvement there is going to have to be a curtailment of the programme of the past.

Now, no attempt is made to dispute the fact that to carry out, at least in part, the programme of the waterways congress would be the very best of business. The improvements would pay for themselves many times over in a generation in increasing the wealth of the people. But there isn't the remotest possibility of seriously undertaking the work and paying for it out of the current revenues of the government. And as future generations would largely get the benefit, the argument that future generations should foot the bill makes a powerful appeal. Opponents of the plan argue that even the interest charge on so stupendous a loan would be too heavy a tax on the revenues. Were the loan floated at three per cent. they point out, the annual interest charge would be sixty millions when the indebtedness reached two hundred millions.

Advocates of the plan have an answer to this objection. In the first place, they contend that the bonds would have ready sale at two per cent. But even three per cent does not frighten them. They argue that the first of the works could be completed in five years, at which period the bond issue would amount to only $250,000,000, with an interest charge at three per cent of $7,500,000. It is declared that the earnings from this completed work by means of tolls would more than pay the interest charges, so that after the first five years the programme would practically be self sustaining so far as interest was concerned. Indeed they produce figures to show that the earnings from the improvements would in time wipe out the entire debt and would then become a source of actual revenue.

Another very persuasive argument is that the expenditure of another fifty millions a year in public works would put a lot of men at work and be highly conducive to prosperity. The figures they show as the net addition to the nation's wealth when the proposed works are accomplished are dizzy.

WILMINGTON'S PORT.

Gain of 35 Per Cent. in Receipts For Last Quarter.

The Charlotte Observer has the following editorially:

"There has been no lack of evidence that all over the State pride is felt in the progress of North Carolina's prosperous seaport. Readers of the daily papers have been informed of the growth of Wilmington as a city—of the blocks of new business houses and residences and of the suburban development—but not so much attention has been attracted to the increasing shipping business of the port. The city is hampered by an old and inadequate customs house, and it is due to this fact that much business offer better facilities, yet for all that, offer better facilities, ye for all that, Wilmington's shipping business shows a steady and rapid increase. This writer a day or two ago came into possession of some figures to prove it—figures embraced in the customs house report for the past month and the past quarter. In the face of the cry of hard times and busines depression throughout the entire country, the receipts from customs duties at the port of Wilmington, are steadily increasing. It is in evidence that the receipts for the month ending March 31, were $3,746.72 as against receipts of $1,109.42 for March of last year. For the quarter ending March 31, this year, the customs receipts were $11,768.67, compared with $7,666.56 for the corresponding quarter last year, an increase of $4,102.11 net for the last quarter, or a gain of about 35 per cent. In view of Wilmington's inadequate facilities for taking care of imported goods, this is, on its face, a splendid showing. But Wilmington is soon to have a new and commodious customs house, one that will be adequate to the requirements of that port and in connection with this will be the dredging of a 30-foot channel to the sea. The day is not far distant when North Carolina will have the busiest seaport between Norfolk and Galveston. There is going to be no stagnant water in Wilmington's harbor by the time the Panama canal is completed."

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefitted by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. Robert R. Bellamy.

Raleigh, N. C., April 10.—The Raleigh Athletic Club, which will essay to furnish Raleigh this season with league baseball games, is this week playing the Marr's Greater Dixie Shows, with view to accumulating a sort of financial nest egg for the maintenance of the league team that is to be entered later in the Eastern Carolina League.

Wilson, April 10.—Captain T. M. Washington, president of the Eastern Carolina League, has engaged W. J. McLaughlin, of North Birmingham, Ala., as an umpire for the league. The captain says he has many applications for this position, but has decided on the above-named gentleman, as he knows his ability. Mr. McLaughlin umpired in this league the latter part of last season, so he will not come into the league as an entire stranger. The pay of the umpire is $7.50 a day—a position therefore not to be despised. Lots of applications came in from competent persons of this vicinity, the captain, however, thinking a stranger might suit all better.

Baltimore, April 10.—Howard W. Lambert, who established a reputation as a fast man as shortstop with the Mount St. Joseph's College team, on which he played four years, has been signed by the Rocky Mount (N. C.) team of the Eastern Carolina League. He will leave the city next week for Rocky Mount, where he will join the team. He will play at short. The lad was manager and captain for two years of the Mount St. Joseph's College team. During that time he was one of the fastest players at the school and managed the team efficiently. He also played with the Irvington Club, where he made a fine reputation at short field.

Two Old Adages.

There are two old adages. SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I—John Gale is a trader at Flambeau, a rough outpost of civilization in Alaska. His daughter Necia is a beautiful young girl, generally believed to be a half breed, daughter of Gale and the Indian squaw Alluna, with whom he lives. Some hidden burden weighs continually on the trader's mind, and he views with apprehension the arrival of a squad of soldiers at Flambeau. "That means the law," he says uneasily to Necia, who has become acquainted with and admired by Lieutenant Burrell, commander of the soldiers. II—It becomes known that Napoleon Roret, an honest, faithful French Canadian employed by Gale, is deeply in love with Necia. One Runnion, a dissolute gambler and "bad man," arrives at Flambeau by steamer and in a fight with Burrell is worsted and forced to leave the town. On the departing steamer's deck he menacingly says, "I will return to take a hand in the game."

"'For w'y shall I sell 'im?' she say. 'I don' wear 'im before till tonight, an' I don' get no more dress lak dis for t'ousan' dollar.'"

Necia exclaimed excitedly.

"'For w'y you sell 'im?' I say. 'Bic-cause I'll tak' 'im down to Flambeau for Necia Gale, w'at never had no dress lak dat in all her life.' Waal, sir, dat Marie Bourgette she's hear of you before, an' your dad, too—mos' all dose Cheechakos know 'bout Old Man Gale—so she say:

"'W'at lookin' kind of gal is dis Necia?' An' I tell her all 'bout you. W'en I'm t'rough she say:

"'But maybe your little frien' is more bigger as I am. Maybe de dress won't fit.'

"'Ha, you don' know me, mamselle!' I say. 'I can guess de weight of a car-ibou to five poun'. She'll be same size la'kin' one inch roun' de wais'.'

"'Poleon Doret,' she say, 'you ain' no Franchemans to talk lak dat. Look here! I can sell dis dress for t'ousan' dollar tonight, or I can trade 'im for gol' mine on El Dorado creek to some dose Swede w'at want to catch a gal, but I'm goin' sell 'im to you for t'ree hondred dollar, jus' w'at I pay for 'im. You wait here till I come back.'

"'No, no, Mamselle Marie, I'll go 'long, too, for so you don' change your min',' I say. An' I stan' outside her door till she pass me de whole works.

"'Don't forget de little shoes,' I say, an' dat's how it come."

"And you paid $300 for it!" Necia said, aghast. The Canadian shrugged.

"Only for de good heart of Marie Bourgette I pay wan t'ousan'," said he. "I mak' seven hondred dollar clean profit."

"It was very nice of both of you, but—I can't wear it. I've never seen a dress like it except in pictures, and I couldn't"— She saw his face fall and said impulsively:

"I'll wear it once anyhow, Poleon, just for you. Go away quick now and let me put it on."

"Dat's good," he nodded as he moved away. "I bet you mak' dose dance hall women look lak sucker."

No man may understand the girl's feelings as she set about clothing herself in her first fine dress. Time and again she had studied pictures from the "outside" showing women arrayed in the newest styles and had closed her eyes to fancy herself dressed in like manner.

She hesitated modestly when she saw its low cut.

Poleon's eye had been amazingly correct, for the gown fitted her neatly save at the waist, which was even more than an inch too large notwithstanding the fact that she had never worn such a corset as the well formed Marie Bourgette was accustomed to.

She pondered long and hesitated modestly when she saw its low cut, which exposed her neck and shoulders in a totally unaccustomed manner, for it struck her as amazingly indecent until she scurried through her magazines again and saw that its construction, as compared with others, was most conservative. Even so she shrank at sight of herself below the line of sunburn, for she was ringed about like a blue winged teal, the demarcation being more pronounced because of the natural whiteness of her skin. She sat down, dress and all, in the thick softness of a great brown bearskin and thought it over.

How odd it was, now that she considered it, that she needed no aid with these alien garments; that she knew instinctively their every feature; that there was no intricacy to cause her more than an instant's trouble.

She was interrupted in her reverie by the passing of a shadow across her window and the stamp of a man's feet on the planks at the door. Of course it was Poleon, who had come back to see her. So she rose hastily, gave one quick glance at the mirror above her washstand, choosing the side that distorted her image the least, and, hearing him still stamping, perfunctorily called:

"Come in! I'll be right out."

She kicked the train into place behind her, looping the shawl carelessly about her in a way to veil her modesty effectively. She crossed proudly to the reading table to give him a fair view of her splendor and was in the middle of the room before she looked up. Taken aback, she uttered a little strangled cry and made a quick movement of retreat, only to check herself and stand with her chin high in the air, while wave after wave of color swept over her face.

"Great lovely dove!" ejaculated Burrell fervently, staring at her.

"Oh, I—I thought you were Poleon. He"— In spite of herself she glanced toward her room as if to flee. She writhed at the utter absurdity of her appearance and knew the lieutenant must be laughing at her. But flight would only make it worse. Burrell, however, was not laughing.

"I was looking for your father," he said, wondering if this glorious thing could be the quaint half breed girl of yesterday. There was nothing of the native about her now, for her lithe young figure was drawn up to its height, and her head, upon which the long black braids were coiled, was tipped back in a haughty poise. She had flung her hands out to grasp the table edge behind her, forgetful of her shawl, which drooped traitorously and showed such rounded lines as her ordinary dress scarce hinted at. This was no Indian maid, the soldier vowed. No blood but the purest could pulse in such veins; no spirit save the highest could flash in such eyes as these. A jealous rancor irked him at the thought of this beauty intended for the Frenchman's eyes.

"Can't you show yourself to me as well as to Poleon?" he said.

"Certainly not!" she declared. "He bought this dress for me, and I put it on to please him. After he sees it I will take it off, and"—

"Don't—don't take it off—ever," said Burrell. "I thought you were beautiful before because of your quaintness and simplicity, but now"—his chest swelled—"why, this is a breath from home. You're like my sister and the girls back in Kentucky, only more wonderful."

"Am I?' she cried eagerly. "Am I like other girls? Do I really look as if I'd always worn clothes like these?"

"Born to them," said he.

Her warmth and unaffected frankness suffused him as she stood out, turning to show the beauties of her gown, her brown hands fluttering tremulously as she talked.

"It's my first party dress, you know, and I'm as proud of it as Molly is of her rubber boots. It's too big in here and too small right there. That girl must have had a bad chest. But otherwise it fits me as if it had been made for me, doesn't it? And the shoes—aren't they the dearest things? See!" She held her skirts back, showing her two feet side by side, her dainty ankles slim and shapely in their silk.

"They don't wear as well as moccasins." Both laughed delightedly till he broke in impulsively:

"Oh, girl, don't you know how beautiful you are?"

"Of course I do," she cried, imitating his change of voice, then added naively, "That's why I hate to take it off."

"Where did you learn to wear things like that?" he questioned. "Where did you get that—well, that air?"

"It seems to me I've always known. There's nothing strange about it. The buttons and the hooks and the eyes are all where they belong. It's instinct, I suppose, from father's side."

"Probably. I dare say I should understand the mechanism of a dress suit, even if I'd never seen one," said the man, amused, yet impressed by her argument.

"I've always had visions of women dressed in this kind of clothing, white women, never natives, not dressed like this exactly, but in dainty, soft things, not at all like the ones I wear. I seem to have a memory, although it's hardly that either; it's more like a dream, as if I were somebody else. Father says it is from reading too much."

"A memory of what?"

"It's too vague and tantalizing to tell what it is, except that I should be called Merridy."

"Merridy? Why that?"

"I'll show yon. See." She slipped her hand inside the shawl and drew from her breast a thin gold chain on which was strung a band ring. "It was grandmother's. That's where I got the fancy for the name of Merridy, I suppose."

"May I look?"

"Of course. But I daren't take it off. I haven't had it off my neck since I was a baby." She held it out for him to examine, and, although it brought his head close to hers, there was no trace of coquetry in the invitation. He read the inscription, "From Dan to Merridy," but had no realization of what it meant, for he glimpsed the milk white flesh almost at his lips and felt her breath stirring his hair, while the delicate scent of her person seemed to loose every strong emotion in him. She was so dainty and yet so virile, so innocent and yet so wise, so cold and yet so pulsating.

"It is very pretty," he said inanely.

At the look in his eyes as he raised his head her own widened, and she withdrew from him imperceptibly, dismissing him with a mere inflection.

"I wish you would send Poleon here. It's time he saw his present."

As Burrell walked out into the air he shut his jaws grimly and muttered: "Hold tight, young man. She's not your kind—she's not your kind."

Inside the store he found Doret and the trader in conversation with a man he had not met before, a ragged nondescript whose overalls were blue and faded and patched, particularly on the front of the legs above the knees, where a shovel handle wears hardest; whose coat was of yellow mackinaw, the sleeves worn thin below the elbows, where they had rubbed against his legs in his work. As the soldier entered the man turned on him a small, shrewd, weather beaten face with one eye while he went on talking to Gale.

"It ain't nothin' to git excited over, but it's wuth follerin'. If I wasn't so cussed unlucky I'd know there was a pay streak som'ere close by."

"Your luck is bound to change, Lee," said the trader, who helped him to roll up a pack of provisions.

"Mebbe so. Who's the dressmaker?" He jerked his bushy head toward Burrell, who had stopped at the front door with Poleon to examine some yellow grains in a folded paper.

"He's the boss soldier."

"Purty, ain't he?"

"If you ain't good he'll get you," said Gale, a trifle cynically, at which Lee chuckled.

The one eyed man snorted derisively. "It ain't wuth considerin'!"

"Why not?" insisted Gale guardedly. "Maybe I've got a record. You don't know."

"If you have, don't tell me nothin' about it," hastily observed Lee. "I'm a God fearin' citizen myself, leanin' ever toward peace and quietudes, but what's past is dead and gone, and I'd hate to see a lispin' child like that blue and yeller party try to reezureck it."

"He's got the American army to back him up, at least five of them."

"Five agin a hundred. He aims to overawe us, don't he?" snickered the unregenerate Lee, but his wrinkles changed and deepened as he leaned across the counter confidentially.

"You say the word, John, and I'll take some feller along to help me, and we'll transfer this military post."

"Pshaw! I'm just supposing," said the trader.

"All right. It's up to you. However, if I happen to leap down on this pay streak before it sees me comin' I'm goin' to put my friends in first and foremost and gaut out these dressmakers complete. So long!"

Having given Necia's message to Poleon, the lieutenant took up his business with the trader. It concerned the purchase of certain supplies that had been omitted from the military outfit, and when this was concluded he referred to the encounter of that morning.

"I don't want you to think I bungle everything in that manner," he said, "for I don't. I want to work with you, and I want to be friends with you."

"I'm willing," said Gale.

"Nobody dislikes playing policeman more than I do, but it's a part of my

"Oh, I—I thought you were Poleon. He"— duty, and I'll have to do it," continued the young man.

"I reckon you simply aim to keep peace, eh? You ain't looking for nobody in particular?"

CHADBOURN HIGH SCHOOL.

Closing Exercises of Most Successful Year—The Teachers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chadbourn, N. C., April 10.—This week marked the completion of the eight months term of the Chadbourn High School.

On Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock the Primary Class of the Music Department gave an interesting recital at the auditorium, which reflected great credit on both teacher and pupils. Indeed all the 15 members of this class did so well that it was a difficult matter for the judges to decide to whom the honor should be awarded. But after a very close contest first honor was given to little Miss Maude Britt, with special mention of the work of Eliza McKoy Whitted, Irene Wesley, Amber Moors and James Toon. A very charming feature of this evening's entertainment was the May pole dance, gracefully executed by a number of the smaller children.

On Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, students, patrons and friends of the school were delightfully entertained by an address delivered most ably by that charming and forceful orator, Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest College, who took for his subject "The Mission and Purpose of the Book." Comment upon this address is superfluous, as Prof. Carlyle easily occupies a first place among our South's brilliant orators. Nor would we do violence to so excellent an address by attempting a synopsis of it. Our community was peculiarly fortunate in securing him on this occasion and attested its appreciation of his address by frequent applause and rapt attention.

The concert, led by the advanced pupils of the school, Wednesday evening, April 7th, was the most delightful entertainment that has been given by our school in some time. The presentation of the brilliant cantata, "Princess Chrysanthemum," thoroughly delighted the large audience, and Miss Florence Crook, as the Princess, charmed all by her sweet singing and graceful acting. Will Brown, as the "Emperor What-for-What," made a typical ruler of the Flowery Kingdom.

At the conclusion of the exercises, Mr. J. A. Brown, in a few well chosen remarks, presented the music medals to the fortunate contestants. The medal for general excellence was won by Mary Hannis Whitted, whose average in music for the year was 97 1-8. The medal for improvement was awarded to Inez Wooten, and the work of these bright little girls won the enthusiastic applause of the audience.

Our school was fortunate in having this year an efficient and earnest corps of teachers, whose work has been greatly appreciated and the progress made by the pupils is highly satisfactory to friends and patrons.

Our principal, Miss Nannie Leach, of Wake county, is a most excellent executive and disciplinarian, and under her management for the past two years our school has grown and prospered.

Miss Rock, of Virginia, has been at the head of the Music Department for two years, and under her skilled instruction the class hos grown from 20 to 55 members, and the excellency of the work done by her pupils at the recitals was most gratifying.

The other teachers who have contributed so much to the success of the school are Miss Fannie M. Webb, Oxford, N. C.; Miss Mary Cook, of Hertford county, N. C.; Miss Fanny B. Wood, Emporia, Va., and Miss Lula A. McGee, Due West, S. C. These earnest and conscientious teachers have won a high place in the esteem of our citizens who would deeply regret to lose them from our school.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead—he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of Eczema, Fever Sores, Boils, Burns and Piles astound the world. 25c at R. R. Bellamy.

THE ALDRICH BILL NOW COMPLETED

It Differs From the House Bill in Many Important Respects.

A REVISION DOWNWARD

Many of Duties in House Bill Reduced and Reductions Made on Larger Number of Articles—Certain Schedules Left Open.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 10.—The Senate tariff bill, so far as rates are concerned, was completed tonight, but it was decided that in making a report Chairman Aldrich will announce a reservation on certain important schedules for future action. These reservations will include hides, steel rails, wood pulp and crude petroleum.

Chairman Aldrich asserted tonight that the Senate committee had made a more general revision of rate than was done by the House Committee on Ways and Means and that reductions in schedules had been made on a far greater number of articles. This did not mean that there would be a reduction of revenues, but that there would be recommended a bona fide revision downward of the tariff.

The great number of changes which will be recommended are due largely to the fact that while the Payne bill revised rates on certain basic articles the revision did not extend to related articles. For instance lead ore was reduced in the Payne bill and the several manufactures of lead ore remained unchanged. The Senate committee made general reductions on these manufactures in harmony with the reduction on the unworked material. Similar changes were made in many other schedules which will account for the many amendments that will be presented in the Senate.

In the report which will be made to the Senate, hides will go on the free list as provided by the Payne bill, but the question of fixing a rate, in accordance with the sentiment of the Senate as expressed through a canvass taken by Western Senators will be taken up in the near future.

A similar condition will be reached on steel rails. The Payne rates are $3.92 per ton, which is one half the existing rate. The committee was impressed with the arguments made by the steel manufacturers that this rate should be increased, but it is known that considerable opposition to such action will be manifested in the Senate. No decision has been reached on the subject of wood pulp and this fact will be announced by Senator Aldrich when he reports the bill.

The same is true of crude petroleum, which the House put on the free list against the protest of leaders in that body. It is likely that the Senate will be given an opportunity to vote upon this article.

The duties on lumber also promise to occasion considerable debate in the Senate and while no deviation from the Payne bill will be recommended, it is predicted that a number of amendments will be offered on the floor of the Senate.

Protests by heavy importers of gloves and hosiery against the increase made by the Payne bill over the existing Dingley rates, which protests were added to by the position taken by hundreds of women throughout the country, indeed the Senate committee to agree to recommend the continuance of the Dingley rates.

The demand for protection for long staple cottonfi which comes into competition with Egyptian cotton used in the manufacture of mercerized silk goods, has been denied by the Senate committee. This action was taken on the ground that the long staple cotton raised on the Sea Islands of South Carolina and Florida now brings a high price in the American market, and for the further reason that it would be difficult not to give like protection to cotton raised in certain parts of Texas and Mississippi, which is of comparatively long staple.

Present indications are that the committee will report the bill to the Senate on Tuesday next.

The administrative features of the bill, in all probability, will not be reported for another week or more.

Something of the proposed tariff bureau which has been the object of a great deal of study, was learned tonight, although plans for the establishment of such a bureau will not be completed until other administrative features of the bill are ready to be reported. According to the present plans the bureau will consist of a consolidation of the bureau of manufactures and the bureau of statistics which are under the Department of commerce and labor; the bureau of trade relations, under the State Department, and the customs division of theTreasury Department. It is intended that this consolidation shall be placed under the head of the treasury department and that it shall act in an advisory capacity to the President in the event of the adoption of Senator Aldrich's maximum and minimum provision for the application of the tariff law.

OKLAHOMA LAW FRAUDS

Indictments in Federal Court Against Governor Haskell and Others Quashed—Others to be Sent. Sensational Statements.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Tulsa, Okla., April 10.—Federal indictments against Governor C. N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, and six other prominent Oklahomans, charged with fraud in Muskogee town lots were quashed today by Judge John A. Marshall, of Utah, in the United States Circuit Court.

The court quashed the indictments on the ground that they were returned by a grand jury composed of 23 men under the Federal law, instead of by a jury of 16, as provided for by the Arkansas law, which was held to be in force in Indian Territory by Federal enactment at the time when the alleged frauds were committed.

Sylvester Rush, special assistant Attorney General, who worked up the cases for the Government stated after the opinion was handed down that he would again present the matter to the grand jury, submitting it without delay to the body now in session. The defendants affected by today's decision beside Governor Haskell include Clarence W. Turner, Muskogee, former member of the city council; Walter R. Eaton, Muskogee, and William T. Hutchings, lawyer born in Virginia. He had been offered a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court of the State of Oklahoma, but declined it.

The aggregate wealth of the seven men is said to be over $2,000,000. The indictments against them numbered 13 and they were returned at Muskogee after a lengthy grand jury investigation conducted by Sylvester Rush, of Omaha, witnesses being brought to the State from Ohio, Michigan and other Eastern States.

The indictments charged alleged conspiracy to defraud the Federal Government and the Creek Indian Nation in connection with the scheduling of Muskogee town lots in 1902.

Today's decision follows the filing at Muskogee on March 14th of a motion to quash all the indictments. The petition was sensational, alleging misconduct upon the part of Sylvester Rush. It alleged that important testimony was suppressed and that witnesses were coerced by Attorney Rush who said indictments should be returned because the Government wanted it done. Mr. Rush denied all these allegations.

Attorneys for the accused assert that the statute of limitation will intervene to prevent new indictments being returned. It is stated that the last overt act charged against the defendants was committed in April, 1906, and that the statute of limitations in cases of this nature bars after three years.

THE CENSUS BILL.

Senate Passes It With Civil Service Clause Provision Included.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 10.—The bill to provide for the taking of the next census was passed by the Senate today in a form which, it is understood, will meet the views of the President regarding appointments for census work under regulations by the Civil Service Commission. Efforts by some Senators to allow these appointments to be made upon recommendation of Senators and Representatives without examination received but slight support. The interesting feature was a speech by Mr. Bailey, who said it was reported that if the bill as passed did not provide for appointments under the Civil Service the President would veto it and added that if any such "threat" were made it would stir up severe criticism of the President.

The Senate at 5:03 o'clock adjourned until Monday.

A MYSTERIOUS KILLING.

Negro Shot by Night Riders—One of Them Killed by Him.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Shellman, Ga., April 10.—The finding of a portion of a white man's skull in a pool of blood in a negro cabin here today and of the body of the negro owner of the cabin, Alfred Iverson, behind his bed, led to the discovery that a posse entered Iverson's cabin last night and shot him. Iverson is believed to have shot one of the attacking party. No reason for the killing of the negro had been learned. According to Iverson's wife, the posse consisted of four white men who went to the cabin to whip Iverson because he had quit work. A fight ensued. After it was over she says the men carried a body away.

CITY OFFICIALS OUSTED.

For Allowing Running of Liquor Joints and Disorderly Houses.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Topeka, Kan., April 10.—The State Supreme Court today rendered a judgement of ouster against Mayor P. J. Harsha, of Hutchinson, all of the city officials and the city itself. The charge against the mayor and other officials was that they permitted violations of the prohibitory law and that "joints" and disorderly houses were given police protection upon payment of a monthly fine.

INJUNCTION AGAINST RATES.

Secured Against Railroads by West Virginia Coal Operators.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Huntington, W. Va., April 10.—The injunction asked by the West Virginia coal operators against the Norfolk & Western, the Chesapeake & Ohio, and the Kanawha & Michigan railroads to prevent the roads from filing with the inter-State Commerce Commission a new freight rate to the lakes, was granted by Judge Keller, of the Federal Court here today.

The date for a final hearing to determine whether to perpetuate or dismiss the injunction has not been fixed.

PENNSYLVANIA DEFEATS YALE

First Boat RaceBetween The Two University in Twenty Years.

SUPERIORITY OF VISTORS

Clearly Shown During the Race and Admitted by Yale Coach—Yale Runs Her Stroke Up to 42 to No Purpose.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, April 10.—In the first boat race between the two universities in twenty years, the University of Pennsylvania 8-oared crow defeated Yale this afternoon by two lengths over the one and a half mile course on the Schuylkill river. The crews rowed against a three-quarters headwind the entire distance and, in the circumstances, the time of 8 minutes and 5 seconds was very good.

Yale reversed matters in the preliminary race for second eights, the Elis winning from the Pennsylvania juniors by 1 1-4 lengths in 8:18 2-5.

Yale for the first time used an English shell and English oars.

Never in the history of rowing on the Schuylkill has a crowd of such magnitude of collegiate affiliations witnessed a boat race. Not only was there an unusually large contingent of Yale and Pennsylvania men from this city, but hundreds of Yale and Pennsylvania graduates from New York and other cities came to see the contest.

The race left no doubt about the superiority of the Pennsylvania eight. Both Julian T. Curtiss, the chairman of Yale's advisory rowing committee, and Coach John Kennedy declared emphatically that the better crew had won. Captain Howe, of Yale, said his crew had rowed its best and had been beaten fairly.

The race for the 'Varsity eights was last on the programme and the start was delayed until after 5 o'clock to let the wind calm down.

A strong southwest wind blew all morning and showed little disposition to stop as the crews paddled up to the starting point.

Both crews got an exceptionally good start, the Yale men getting their oars into the water a fraction of a second ahead of Pennsylvania. The Elis started with a stroke of 34 to the minute, while Pennsylvania rowed 32. Before the crews had gone 100 yards Yale had an advantage of a few feet. The Yale men were rowing a shorter stroke than the Quakers and seemed to be using up more energy than was necessary. The Pennsylvania shell was cutting through the water more steadily than the Yale boat which was momentarily checked at the end of each stroke. At the end of the first half mile Pennsylvania was half a length ahead of Yale and the latter hit their stroke up to 36, Pennsylvania raising hers to 34. The red and blue continued to gain and at the end of the mile open water began to show between the two shells. In an effort to overtake Pennsylvania, Captain Howe hit up the Yale stroke to 38, Pennsylvania still being content with 34. Yale spurted on the next quarter of a mile for a few strokes managed to hold Pennsylvania. Then the Quakers, hitting up their stroke kept drawing away. A quarter mile from the finish Yale made a final effort and ran her stroke up to 40. Pennsylvania responded with a stroke of 38, which her crew held to the finish, while Yale ran hers up to 42. Pennsylvania made a very strong finish and when their eight crossed the finish line there was a length of open water between the two shells.

THE DEFENDANT DISCHARGED.

Stole Six Cents Worth of Coal For Freezing Mother.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 10.—James Finley, a boy of 17, was arraigned before Magistrate Crane in the Morrisania Court today charged with stealing six cents worth of coal from the railroad yards in Mott Haven. The widowed mother of the boy said he went after the coal because it was cold in their home. She and her children, she said, were on the verge of starvation. The magistrate, apparently affected by the pitiful case of need, discharged the boy, remarking, "young man, I am going to discharge you; but I want to tell you something. If you want to steal wait until you are president of a railroad. Then you can steal anything you want and have no fear of punishment. Until then you must never look at a railroad car, or you might be arrested."

LOST CHILDREN FOUND

Locked in Closet in Vacant House For Twenty Hours.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Bay City, Mich., April 10.—Agnes and Helen Phillips, aged one and ten years respectively, and Guieth Carpenter, aged 11, who had been missing from their homes here since yesterday, afternoon were this afternoon found in the closet of a nearby vacant house where they had been for 20 hours. The three little girls had gone there to play and the door which had a spring lock blew closed, making them prisoners. The children's plight was discovered accidentally by two ladies who were passing the vacan house.

Although cold, hungry and frightened from their twenty hours' implisonment in the dark and lonely place, none of the children was any the worse physically for the experience.

MISSOURI RAILWAY RATE.

Railways Have Granted All Concessions They Will Make.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

St. Louis, April 10.—That the railroads of Missouri have made all possible concessions to the State authorities in the matter of passenger rates and will resist the injunction suit filed Thursday in St. Louis was the gist of an announcement made today at the close of the first session of a gathering of executive officials of the 18 systems interested.

There will be no compromise offer of rates as Governor Hadley hope.

"Every railroad corporation made defendant in the suit for injunction was represented at today's meeting," said D. L. Winchell, president of the Rock Island. "We went over the ground and decided there was nothing for us to do but to go into the vourt and present our reasons for trying to put the new rate into operation.

"We did not consider a counter-proposition to the governor. How could we do so legally? He has had us enjoined from agreeing on one schedule of rates with three cents as maximum. We are told it was illegal and in violation of our charters. We might be guilty of discrimination again as previously charged. So we decided to call in the lawyers and tell them to see what they can do."

Frank A. Hagerman, of Kansas City, special counsel for the eighteen railroads involved, met with the attorneys of the roads after the conference and formulated a reply to the charges in the petition filed for the Governor by Circuit Attorney Jones Thursray.
